

Ipswich Conservative Association

Annual Dinner

with Johnny Mercer MP

Wednesday 15th January

7.00pm for 7.30pm

The Ipswich Golf Club
Purdis Heath, Bucklesham Rd,
Warren Heath, Ipswich
IP3 8UQ

Johnny Mercer has served in the Armed Forces from 2002 to 2013, including a tour in Afghanistan.

He entered politics in 2013 as he felt veterans and serving personnel deserved more consideration from the governments of the day. He won the seat of Plymouth Moor View in 2015 and then increased his majority five fold in 2017.

He has been appointed Minister for Military Personnel and Veterans in the Ministry of Defence and Minister for the Affairs of Veterans in the Cabinet Office. In 2017 he wrote a book named "We were Warriors" which entered the Sunday Times Best Seller list.

TICKETS

Tickets are available at £38.50.

Tickets to sit at the top table are available at £50.

Please note that bookings will only be confirmed after receipt of payment.

The Ipswich Conservative Association exists to promote the Conservative Party in Ipswich. Money raised at our Annual Dinner will go towards supporting our new MP, Tom Hunt, and our campaigns to support local election candidates in May and the re-election of our Suffolk PCC, Tim Passmore.

Thanks to Ipswich Golf Club, Goddard & Co. and The Conservative Foundation for their support of our Annual Dinner.

TO BOOK

To book your ticket please contact
Cllr Liz Harsant at cllrharsant@btconnect.com